The Rabbi Jacob Pressman Academy Religious School

Time to wait between the end of school and Religious School? Have to run errands? Juggling carpools?

Sign your child(ren) up for the Homework Club!

"Homework Club"

2010-2011 school year

A supervised program which includes homework time and a snack.

The fee for this program is:

(Please check box for number of days registered; September through June)

One day per week (Tuesdays only): $ 153.00 per child

Homework Club staff will meet students at the entrance to the synagogue at 3:00 PM. Children will go to a designated classroom in the school building for supervised homework time and snack. At 3:50 PM, Homework Club staff will walk children to their designated Religious School classrooms. Late arrivals to Homework Club should proceed directly to the designated Homework Club classroom. Please note: We need a minimum of ten students in order to provide the Homework Club program.
